Shankland Nears GM Norm In Berkeley!

January 8, 2011 by Arun Sharma

Arun Sharma, organizer of the Berkeley International updates CLO readers with norm chances after eight rounds. Headlining the news is US Junior Champ IM Sam Shankland (right), who (UPDATE) has clinched a GM norm with a ninth round draw against GM Loek Van Wely! Sam is also a Brandeis University student and a member of the 2010 US Chess League Championship team, the New England Nor'Easters.

As round nine nears its conclusion, Arun provided a further update, "Both SM Denys Shmelov and FM Keaton Kiewra have also earned GM norms now! Three in this event is quite incredible. Also, both FM Conrad Holt and SM Roman Yankovsky got the results needed to complete their IM titles, and FM Daniel Naroditsky is still playing but also has a chance to do the same!"
